

Dong Liu, PhD

University of Wisconsin-Madison

Dong Liu received her B.S. degree in optoelectronics engineering in 2009 and the Ph.D. in electrical engineering from Tsinghua University in Beijing, China in 2014. She has been a postdoctoral research associate in Prof. Zhenqiang Ma's group in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering at the University of Wisconsin-Madison since 2014. Her research interests focus on wide-band gap material based optoelectronics devices, RF power electronics and large lattice mis-matched semiconductor heterostructures. She is a recipient of the best Ph.D dissertation award in Tsinghua University. She is an author or a co-author of 29 peer-reviewed technical papers and book chapters related to her research and holds 1 US patent with 2 US patents pending. She serves as a technical reviewer for 6 international journals.
