The American Cancer Society's Relay For Life of Oakland at Carnegie Mellon will be holding a Luminaria Ceremony on Saturday, October 8, 2005 at 9:00 pm at Gesling Stadium.

During this special time at Relay For Life we pause to honor cancer survivors and remember those lost. Luminarias are bagged votives that are lit "in tribute" to a loved one who has been touched by cancer. The candles burn throughout the night to light the way for our Relay For Life walkers during this 24 hour, fun-filled event.

We welcome you to pay tribute to a friend or loved one by purchasing a Luminaria in their name. Simply complete the bottom portion of this flyer and return it to the American Cancer Society by Friday, September 23, 2005.
