

217

DEDICATION OF THE NEW BUILDING
MELLON INSTITUTE
MAY 6 -- 9, 1937
PITTSBURGH
PENNSYLVANIA

Prededication Events

Thursday, May Sixth

9:00 A. M. Assembly of Out-of-town Guests, at the Institute's New Building, Fifth and Bellefield Avenues.

10:00 A. M. Preview of the Building, for Former Fellows, Past and Present Donors, and Other Guests.

12:00 M. Institute's Luncheon for Visiting Scientists, at the Hotel Schenley.

Robert Kennedy Duncan Club's Luncheon for Former Fellows, at the University Club.

Dedication Exercises

Thursday, May Sixth

2:00 P. M.

Carnegie Music Hall

Dr. Edward R. Weidlein, Presiding Officer

Addresses for the Founders

Hon. Andrew W. Mellon

Mr. Richard K. Mellon

Addresses by Nobel Laureates

Dr. Irving Langmuir
"Chemical Research"

Dr. Harold C. Urey
"Accomplishments and Future of Chemical Physics"

Dr. William P. Murphy
"Scientific Research in the Solution of Medical Problems"

Dr. Marshall Bidwell, Organist

Symposium on Recent Progress of Science

Friday, May Seventh

10:00 A. M.

Carnegie Music Hall

Dr. Edward R. Weidlein, Presiding Officer

Participants

Dr. Frank B. Jewett
"Communication Engineering"

Dr. George O. Curme, Jr.
"The Synthetic Organic Chemical Industry"

Sir Frederick Banting
"Early Work on Insulin"

Dr. William W. G. MacLachlan
"Problems in the Chemo-therapy of Pneumonia"

Other Events

Friday, May Seventh

12:30 P. M. Luncheon for Visiting Scientists, at the University Club.

2:30 P. M. Special Meeting of the Robert Kennedy Duncan Club, in the Institute's Auditorium.

Inspection of the Building and Exhibits.

7:00 P. M. Special Group Dinners to Visiting Scientists.

Building Open for Public Inspection

Saturday, May Eighth
10:00 A. M. to 10:00 P. M.

Sunday, May Ninth
1:00 P. M. to 7:00 P. M.

