

John Gardner

238 Hamburg Hall
5000 Forbes Ave
Pittsburgh PA, 15213

johngardner@cmu.edu
andrew.cmu.edu/user/jrgardne

Teaching experience

Instructor. Regression Analysis. Summer 2009.

Teaching assistant, Applied Econometrics II. Instructor: Melvin Stephens. Spring 2009.

Teaching assistant, Corporate Strategy. Instructor: George Levi-Gayle. Fall 2008.

Teaching assistant, Microeconomics. Instructor: Siddharth Chandra. Fall 2008.

Teaching assistant, Applied Econometrics II. Instructor: Tom Loughran. Spring 2008.

Teaching assistant, Economic Analysis. Instructor: Alessandro Acquisti. Fall 2007.

Selected writing

“Residential segregation and racially biased policing.” Tepper School of Business Summer Paper. August, 2008.

“Race, trust and social capital.” Tepper School of Business Summer Paper. September, 2007.

“The value of wildlife-viewing tourism as an incentive for conservation of biodiversity in the Okavango Delta, Botswana.” Development Southern Africa, Vol. 24, 3, p. 409-423.

“Won’t you be my neighbor? Comparing conventional and alternative indices of residential segregation.” Senior honors thesis. 2003.

“Nonmarket valuation of Botswana’s Okavango Delta.” Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program final report. 2003.

Education

PhD. Economics and Public Policy. Carnegie Mellon University. Pittsburgh, PA. In progress.

MS. Economics. Carnegie Mellon University. Pittsburgh, PA. 2009.

Coursework in mathematics. University of Nebraska. Kearney, NE. 2004; University of Northern Colorado. Greeley, CO. 2004.

BA. Economics (summa cum laude) and Political Science. University of Colorado. Boulder, CO. 2003.