Carnegie Mellon University

CyLab
Security and Privacy Institute

"We are passionate about creating a world in which people trust technology."

69
CORE
FACULTY

100+
GRADUATE STUDENTS

20
CORPORATE PARTNERS

5 COLLEGES
AND THE SOFTWARE ENGINEERING INSTITUTE

ENGINEERING

COMPUTER SCIENCE

PUBLIC POLICY

BUSINESS

HUMANITIES

25K
SQUARE FEET OF COLLABORATIVE
RESEARCH SPACE

6
ENDOWED PRESIDENTIAL FELLOWS

$11.5 MILLION
IN CONTRIBUTIONS

Carnegie Mellon University

CyLab

Security and Privacy Institute

CyLab: A University-Wide Security and Privacy Institute

Tuesday, December 15 • 1:00–3:00 pm • Gates Hillman Center 6115

Lunch service

Opening remarks
- Farnam Jahanian, University Provost

Remarks from Mike Echols
- Director of the Joint Program Management Office at U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Cybersecurity and Communications

University Commitment to Cybersecurity
- Farnam Jahanian, University Provost

Remarks from Bosch
- Sylvia Vogt, President of Carnegie Bosch Institute

Remarks from CIT / SCS Deans
- James H. Garrett (Dean, CIT)
- Andrew Moore (Dean, SCS)

Break

Panel Discussion: CMU's Approach to Cybersecurity
- Moderator: David Brumley (Director, CyLab)
- Jelena Kovačević (Head, ECE)
- Dena Haritos Tsamitis (Director, INI)
- Frank Pfenning (Head, CSD)
- Kevin Fall (CTO, SEI)
- William Scherlis (Director, ISR)

Q&A with panelists

Closing remarks
- David Brumley, Director of CyLab