

Pittsburgh Architecture Lectures
spring 2003

Edwin Chan

Gehry Partners

Hornbostel Lecture & Student Awards Ceremony

"@foga.com"

Edwin Chan

Senior Design Partner
Frank Gehry Architects

Edwin Chan, senior design partner at Gehry Partners architects, will speak about current work and process in the Gehry office. Chan is responsible for the designs of the Guggenheim Museum at Bilbao, the new Guggenheim proposal for New York, the Conde Naste Cafeteria in New York, the Weisman Art Museum in Minneapolis, the Rasin Building ("Fred & Ginger") in Prague, the Samsung Museum in Seoul, Korea, and many other significant designs. Chan was educated at Berkeley and Harvard, and lectures frequently at universities on the design process. Part of the "Pittsburgh Architecture Lecture Series," sponsored by the AIA Pittsburgh's Foundation for Architecture and Astorino, in memory of Dahlen K. Ritchey, FAIA.

Monday 4.14.03

6:30pm

McConomy Auditorium
University Center