Plagiarism

- ❑ Words or ideas presented in a magazine, book, newspaper, song, TV program, movie, Web page, computer program, letter, advertisement, or any other medium
- ❑ Information you gain through interviewing or conversing with another person, face to face, over the phone, or in writing
- ❑ When you copy the exact words or a unique phrase

Reprinted with permission from The Writing Lab & The OWL at Purdue and Purdue University.

To Credit or Document.....

- ❑ When you reprint any diagrams, illustrations, charts, pictures, or other visual materials
- ❑ When you reuse or repost any electronically-available media, including images, audio, video, or other media
- ❑ Bottom line, document any words, ideas, or other productions that originate somewhere outside of you.

Duplicate Publication/ Redundant Publication

- ❑ Become informed about journals/publications important to your field and choose wisely when submitting a paper to only ONE publication.
- ❑ If you are rejected, use the feedback from reviewers to improve your work, then send on to the NEXT publication.
- ❑ For continuing study results, be sure to only publish NEW studies, even when built on original work.
